YELM HIGH SCHOOL

FOREWORD

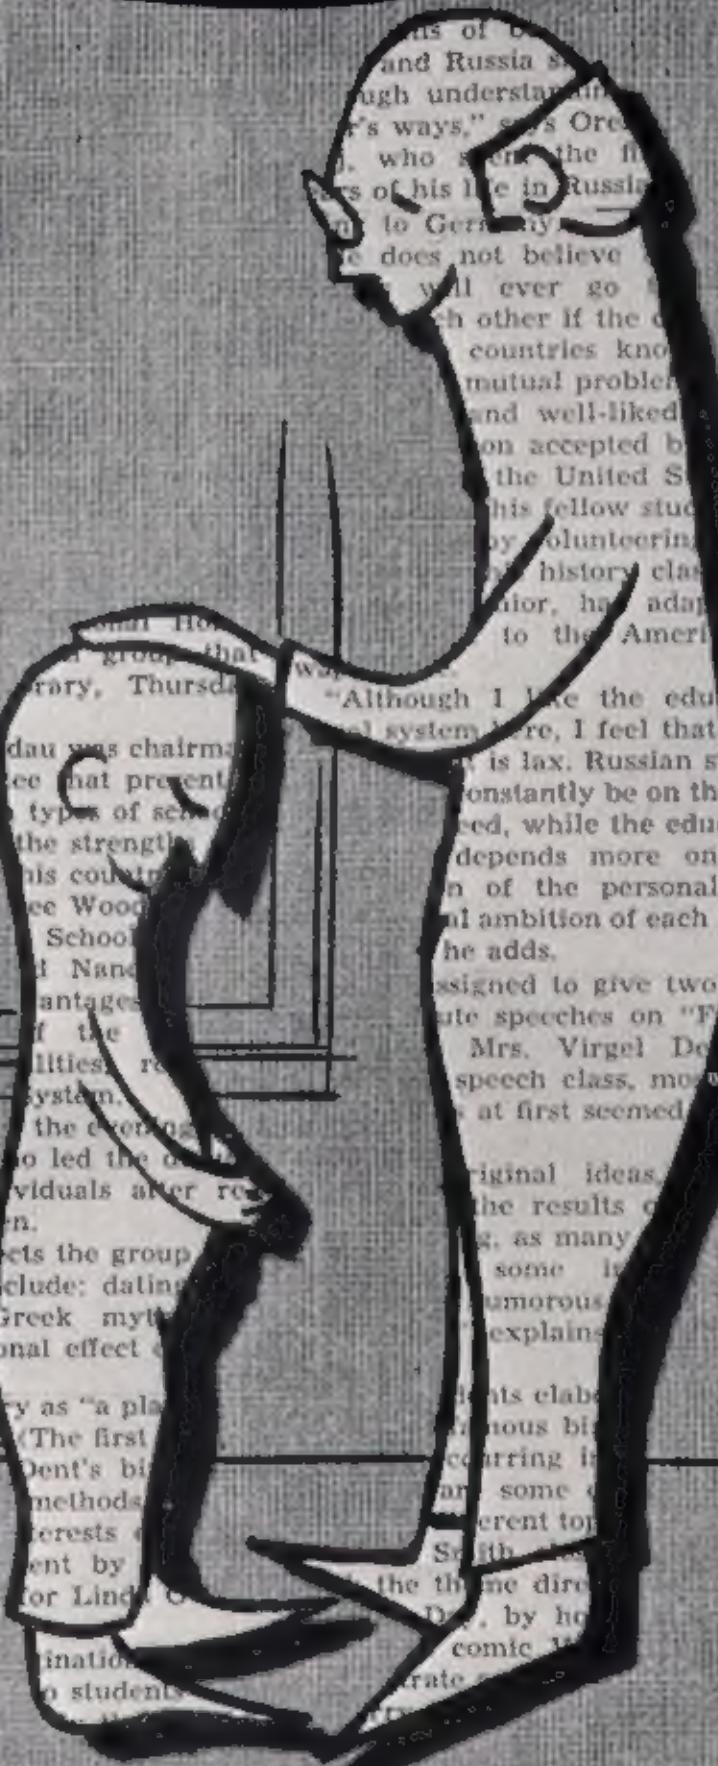

"A little nonsense now and then is cherished by the wisest men."

In this, your 1961 Tornado, we present a treasury of the work and play of our days at Yelm High.

In the years to come, we hope that you will look back and remember and cherish the short time we had together.

ADMINISTRATION

...ns of both America and Russia should through understanding each other's ways," says Orenburg, who spent the first years of his life in Russia and moved to Germany. "He does not believe that the two countries will ever go to war with each other if the two countries know each other's mutual problems and are well-liked." Orenburg, accepted by the United States as a fellow student, by volunteering for history classes, the senior, has adapted well to the American way.

"Although I like the educational system here, I feel that it is not as good as ours. Russian schools constantly be on the move, while the education depends more on the personal ambition of each individual," he adds.

Assigned to give two-minute speeches on "Famous Americans," Mrs. Virgel Dent, speech class, most students at first seemed unable to come up with original ideas, but the results of the assignment, as many students some in a serious, humorous manner, explained.

Students elaborate on famous biographies occurring in the year, some on more different topics. Smith, for example, the theme director of the Day, by his own comic way, illustrate the assignment to students.

SENIORS

Castmaster Larry Clegg presided over the program. Robert O'Brien presented the Board of Education scroll before the meal was begun. Queen sits at Head Table. The retiring Queen Barbara and her attendants, the four other officers, sat at the head table. The decorations were designed by Miss Vickie Vining. Plaques behind the head table featured scenes from daily school life. Also trying out the theme were the programs drawn by Barbara on the banquet tables. Bouquets of flowers along with gold and silver tapers and flags of the United States. Members of the Board of Education, their wives, school officials and guests were seated at the head table.

Sophomores Serve as Waiters. Served by the sophomore girls under the direction of Miss Shirley, the meal consisted of pineapple cocktail, turkey, sage dressing, baked ham, whipped potatoes, baked beans. Parker and geometry, a foreign language, and French. It also included English, world history, business and business methods, arts and gymnasium, one elective subject, laboratory science, and

Scholarships To Four Students

Ward, Smith, Judy Line and Barbara have been awarded scholarships.

Ward, who will enter Minot State College, will receive a $285 tuition for his first year. He ranks in the upper half of the senior class.

A Curators Scholar, Ward received $170 toward tuition. Judy was awarded a $200 scholarship. Barbara plans to attend the School of Mines.

Judy received a $150 scholarship to the University of Minot.

Barbara received a $150 scholarship to the University of North Dakota.

Ward, Smith, Judy and Barbara will attend college in the fall.

AMONG OUR SOUVENIRS

Leaving grade school in the spring of '57, the class of '61 joyfully entered the halls of dear ol' Yelm High. Figuring the upper classmen needed to be cheered up a bit, the 64 new freshmen brought with them many "fads" and lots of "fun." 'Elvis' was the freshmen favorite and his greatest hit was "Hound Dog."

The theme of the Freshmen dance was "Deep Purple," a favorite song of the freshmen.

Class officers included, President, Dave Kinney; Vice President, Eddie Heath; Secretary-Treasurer, Gail Edwards; and Sergeant at Arms, Bob Koeppen. The highest point of the year was when Yelm won the State 'B' basketball championship at Spokane.

The next year, in came the Sophomores with "hula hoops." Sack dresses were the rage and the Sophomores felt more in the swing of things with their 'Hop' titled "Mardi Gras." Some of the songs they danced to were "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes," by the Platters, "Love me Tender" by Elvis Presly, and "Autumn Leaves." The Russian's "Sputnik" made its appearance in 1958. This was the first satellite ever to successfully orbit the earth. Then there was the clothing drive that the Sophomores almost won. They claim that they would have won, except the Seniors stole all their clothes.

We chose Dave Kinney to lead us as President. His helpers were Don Hansen, Vice President; Gail Edwards, Secretary; and Mike Walker, Sergeant at Arms.

Ah, finally upperclassmen! As Juniors, the class was 'like cool man. Leotards and beatniks along with hayrides and the Junior Prom kept this class alive. The Prom, "Moonlight and Roses," was a success. Music was provided by the Midnight Sons.

Running competition to the Wailers were the Knighthawks, composed of Walt Bowen, drums; Chub Coulter, guitar; Dave Rogers, guitar, and Jack Butler, sax.

All the good shows came on TV in '59, among the favorites were "Peter Gunn," "Maverick," and of course "Huckleberry Hound."

The class officers elected for this year were: President, Larry Schorno; Vice President, Mike Walker; Secretary, Elsie Sherman; and Dan Longmire, Sergeant at Arms.

"Pink Champagne" was the theme of the Senior Ball. It was held December 10 in the cafeteria.

By Christmas time, graduation excitement was in the air. The commencement speakers chosen were Elsie Sherman, John Pierce, Eugene Kulan, Kent Isenburg, and Karen Morris. Out of the 49 students graduating from Yelm High, 21 of them began their school career at Yelm Grade School. They are: Marilyn Peoples, Dan Longmire, Karen Morris, Arline Meyer, Carol Brand, Gail Edwards, John Pierce, Orrin Fox, Mary Games, Bob Halstead, Jim Raab, Irene Robison, Larry Henderson, Elsie Sherman, David Kinney, Linda Stewart, Carol Triplett, Bob Koeppen, and Betty Vancil.

Some favorites of the Seniors this year were: the spine-chilling movie, Psycho, a TV program called "Hawaiian Eye," and all the special privileges the seniors got for just being seniors.

The sad and the glad came to school November 9, 1960, the day after the Presidential elections. Kennedy won over Nixon by a very small popular vote.

At last the great day came. On May 26, 1961, 49 seniors marched down the aisle of the Yelm High School gymnasium, to receive their diplomas. And thus ends the history of that great class of 1961.

Don Hansen, Vice President; Larry Schorno, President; Elsie Sherman, Secretary; Ken Laughlin, Sergeant at Arms.

Football 1960 found Yelm with a heavy line and a determined backfield. At times, particularly in the mud, the TORNADOES were impressive, but the team had one serious weakness which hampered them during the entire season. This weakness was a lack of SPEED. The TORNADOES could put up a fierce goal line defense only to have opposing halfbacks break away for long runs to win the ball game. Some of Yelm's finest moments were highlighted by rugged line play. Tackle Rick Raab and guard Bob Koeppen were standouts in this veteran line. Newcomers such as Jim Spencer and George Carl give the TORNADOES hope for a better season in 1961. ROBERT SWANBERG

The dinner is to be held at Rosellini's 410 restaurant in Seattle Sunday.

In Seattle, Luke Graham, state Democratic chairman, said the affair was planned as a get-together of the governors.

He said The Daily Olympian expected.

Graham confirmed reports the money would go for debts incurred during Rosellini's recent campaign for reelection.

Rosellini reported he spent $87,78 for his primary election campaign, but no figure has been

Dear Friends,
As you saw from the 1961 Journals the protest
first time - you were here!
wondered how such years have the great race course.
We hope you enjoy your stay in the young year.
Good luck to you all.
